

The Prettiest Town in Every State

The Daily Meal

Bianca Bahamondes

6 days ago

SHARE

SHARE

TWEET

SHARE

EMAIL

14/51 SLIDES © JannHuizenga/istockphoto.com

ILLINOIS: GALENA

The city was named after the mineral that was mined in the area, but is now a beautiful getaway for those looking to step back in time. Galena's Historic District is even on the National Register of Historic Places. So take a scenic drive through the town's rolling hills, and take a stroll down the charming Main Street, which overlooks the Galena River.